Another Big Dress Goods Scoop.

$1.25 Bannockburns, 67c.

We are always on a still hunt for chances to work in a surprise. We made one purchase not long ago of 40 pieces and sold them at the same price. They flew like chaff before the wind. This time we've more than doubled the order for these same goods. Of course the price concession was the main feature. Quantity never stands in our way when figures register below market prices. This time fortune was again in our favor in directing us within the reach of this opportunity. Just think! 100 pieces of one particular brand of goods. They are strictly all wool and are shown in a dozen nobby, tasty combinations and colorings. They are 52 inches wide and the price has been $1.25 per yard. This big purchase will continue a break in the price by offering the entire lot, or
